

Classes of sentient being thought

Classes of sentient being thought
Religious	Philosophic	Secular
Belief	Transcendence	Objective
▪ Monotheism		▪ Inheritance
▪ Pantheism		▪ Polymorphism
▪ Polytheism		▪ Encapsulation
Trivium		Quadrivium
Concept	Logical	Physical
Ripose

Term	Definition
Being	1 existence 2 the nature or essence 3 a human being 4 anything that exists or is imagined
Class	Any set of things grouped together, or graded or differentiated from others
Concept	1 a general notion; an abstract idea 2 colloq. an idea or invention to help sell or publicize a commodity 3 Philos. an idea or mental picture of a group or class of objects formed by combining all their aspects.
Encapsulation	Summarize; express the essential features of
Inheritance	Derive a quality or characteristic genetically from one's parents or ancestors
Logical	Deducible or defensible on the ground of consistency; reasonably to be believed or done.
Monotheism	The doctrine that there is only one God
Objective	External to the mind; actually existing; real
Pantheism	1. The belief that God is identifiable with the forces of nature and with natural substances. 2. Worship that admits or tolerates all gods.
Physical	Of, or according to, the laws of nature
Polymorphism	The occurrence of something in several different forms
Polytheism	The belief in or worship of more than one god
Quadrivium	A medieval university course of arithmetic, geometry, astronomy, and music
Ripose	A technique with its own software which rapidly integrates patterns of strategic elements
Sentient	Having the power of perception by the senses
Thought	Sober reflection or consideration
Transcendence	Be beyond the range or grasp of (human experience, reason, belief.)
Trivium	A medieval university course of grammar, rhetoric, and logic